

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

ROMAN ZELTSER, ANNA TYUTYUNIK, and JARED BROCK, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated,

Plaintiffs,

v.

MERRILL LYNCH & CO., INC., MERRILL
LYNCH, PIERCE, FENNER & SMITH, INC., and BANK OF AMERICA CORPORATION,

Defendants.

No. 13 Civ. 1531 (FM)

ORIGINAL

[PROPOSED] ORDER GRANTING PLAINTIFFS' MOTION FOR CERTIFICATION OF THE SETTLEMENT CLASS, FINAL APPROVAL OF THE CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT, APPROVAL OF THE FLSA SETTLEMENT, AND APPROVAL OF ATTORNEYS' FEES, REIMBURSEMENT OF EXPENSES, AND SERVICE AWARDS

78M

Plaintiffs Roman Zeltser, Anna Tyutyunik, and Jared Brock (together, "Plaintiffs") are individuals who worked as Field Financial Solutions Advisors ("Field FSAs") for Defendants Merrill Lynch & Co., Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith, Inc. ("Merrill" or "Defendants"). On March 7, 2013, Plaintiffs commenced this case as a putative class action under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 and as a collective action under 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), claiming that Merrill failed to pay them overtime wages to which they were entitled under the wage and hour laws of New York and the Fair Labor Standards Act ("FLSA"). On September 3, 2013, Plaintiffs amended their complaint to add claims under the wage and hour laws of California. Plaintiffs sought unpaid overtime wages, attorneys' fees and costs, interest, liquidated damages, and injunctive and declaratory relief.

After several months of litigation, the parties agreed to engage in private mediation, and exchanged data in order to enable Plaintiffs to calculate damages. Through extensive and vigorous negotiations during and after the mediation, the parties reached a settlement of up to $6.9 million. Decl. of Justin M. Swartz in Supp. of Pls.' Mot. for Certification of the Settlement Class, Final Approval of the Class Action Settlement, and Approval of the FLSA Settlement ("Swartz Decl.") ¶¶ 8-19; 42. The parties reached this settlement after a formal mediation under the supervision of an experienced employment law mediator, David Rotman, Esq. Id. ¶ 15. During the next several weeks following the mediation, the parties negotiated the remaining terms of the settlement, which were memorialized in a formal settlement agreement ("Settlement Agreement"). Id. ¶ 20.

On May 12, 2014, this Court entered an Order preliminarily approving the settlement on behalf of the class set forth therein (the "Class" or the "Class Members"), conditionally certifying the settlement class, appointing Outten & Golden LLP, Shavitz Law Group P.A., and The Young Law Firm, P.C. as Class Counsel, and authorizing notice to all Class Members. ECF No. 74.

On June 5, 2014, a claims administrator sent Court-approved notices to all Class Members informing them of their rights under the settlement, including the right to opt out or object to the settlement for Class Members in the two states where Rule 23 claims were brought, and of Class Counsel's intention to seek service awards for the Named Plaintiffs and certain opt-in Plaintiffs, up to one-third of the settlement fund for attorneys' fees, and their out-of-pocket expenses. Swartz Decl., Ex. B (Patton Decl.) ¶ 4. No Class Members objected to the settlement, and only one opted out of the settlement. Id. ¶¶ 7-8.

On September 8, 2014, Plaintiffs filed a Motion for Certification of the Settlement Class, Final Approval of the Class Action Settlement, and Approval of the FLSA Settlement (“Motion for Final Approval”). That same day, Plaintiffs also filed Motions for Approval of Attorneys’ Fees and Reimbursement of Expenses (“Motion for Attorneys’ Fees”) and for Service Awards (“Motion for Service Awards”). Defendants took no position with respect to any of these motions and did not object to the requests for attorneys’ fees, costs, or service payments.

The Court held a fairness hearing on September 23, 2014. No Class Member objected to the settlement at the hearing.

Having considered the Motion for Final Approval, the Motion for Attorneys’ Fees and Reimbursement of Expenses, the Motion for Service Awards, and the supporting declarations, the oral argument presented at the September 23, 2014 fairness hearing, and the complete record in this matter, for the reasons set forth therein and stated on the record at the September 23, 2014 fairness hearing, and for good cause shown,

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

CERTIFICATION OF THE SETTLEMENT CLASS

1. The Court certifies the following classes under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(e), for settlement purposes (the “Rule 23 Class Members”):

- a. all current and former Field FSAs employed by Defendants in retail banking centers in the State of New York between November 15, 2006 and April 30, 2014;
- b. all current and former Field FSAs employed by Defendants in retail banking centers in the State of California between September 3, 2009 and April 30, 2014.

2. Plaintiffs meet all of the requirements for class certification under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(a) and (b)(3).

3. Plaintiffs satisfy Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(a)(1) because there are approximately 599 Rule 23 Class Members and, thus, joinder is impracticable. See Consol. Rail

Corp. v. Town of Hyde Park, 47 F.3d 473, 483 (2d Cir. 1995) (“[N]umerosity is presumed at a level of 40 members.”).

4. The proposed class also satisfies Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(a)(2), the commonality requirement. Plaintiffs and Class Members share common issues of fact and law, including whether Defendants misclassified them as exempt employees, failed to pay them overtime wages in violation of state wage and hour laws, and failed to keep accurate records of time worked. See Morris v. Affinity Health Plan, Inc., 859 F. Supp. 2d 611, 615-16 (S.D.N.Y. 2012) (commonality satisfied where, among other allegations, plaintiffs claimed that defendant had a policy of not paying all class members overtime pay); Clark v. Ecolab Inc., Nos. 07 Civ. 8623, et al., 2010 WL 1948198, at *3 (S.D.N.Y. May 11, 2010) (common issues that help to satisfy Rule 23 commonality requirement include “whether [Defendant] failed to pay Plaintiffs and the state settlement Class Members overtime premium pay for all hours they worked over 40 in a workweek; and . . . whether [Defendant] maintained accurate time records of the hours Plaintiffs and the state settlement Class Members worked”).

5. Plaintiffs satisfy Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(a)(3), typicality, because Plaintiffs’ claims arose from the same factual and legal circumstances that form the bases of Class Members’ claims. See Morris, 859 F. Supp. 2d at 616 (typicality satisfied where “[p]laintiffs’ claims for overtime pay [arose] from the same factual and legal circumstances that form[ed] the bases of the [c]lass [m]embers’ claims”).

6. Plaintiffs satisfy Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(a)(4) because there is no evidence that the Plaintiffs’ and the Class Members’ interests are at odds. See id. (finding adequacy requirement met where there was no evidence that plaintiffs’ and class members’ interests were at odds); Johnson v. Brennan, No. 10 Civ. 4712, 2011 WL 4357376, at *5

7. In addition, Outten & Golden LLP “have substantial experience prosecuting and settling employment class actions, including wage and hour class actions[,] and are well-versed in wage and hour law and class action law.” Guaman v. Ajna-Bar NYC, No. 12 Civ. 2987, 2013 WL 445896, at *3 (S.D.N.Y. Feb. 5, 2013). Likewise, Plaintiffs’ Counsel Shavitz Law Group, P.A. (“Shavitz Law Group”) has acted as lead counsel or co-counsel on dozens of wage and hour class and collective actions. *See Palacio v. E*TRADE Fin. Corp.*, No. 10 Civ. 4030, 2012 WL 1058409, at *2 (S.D.N.Y. Mar. 12, 2012) (appointing the Outten and Golden LLP and Shavitz Law Group as Class Counsel based on their experience in “numerous wage and hour class and collective actions”). The Young Law Firm is similarly experienced in wage and hour litigation and well qualified to act as Class Counsel. Decl. of Jeremi K. Young in Supp. of Pls.’ Mot. for Approval of Attorneys’ Fees and Reimbursement of Expenses (“Young Decl.”) ¶ 4 (listing cases)

8. Plaintiffs also satisfy Rule 23(b)(3). Plaintiffs’ common factual allegations and a common legal theory – that Defendants violated federal and state wage and hour laws by misclassifying Plaintiffs as exempt employees and failing to pay them for premium overtime hours – predominate over any factual or legal variations among Class Members. See Torres v. Gristede’s Corp., No. 04 Civ. 3316, 2006 WL 2819730, at *16 (S.D.N.Y. Sept. 29, 2006) (plaintiffs “introduced sufficient proof that Defendants engaged in a common practice to deny employees overtime pay,” and “this issue predominates over any individual calculations of overtime wages”).

9. Class adjudication of this case is superior to individual adjudication because it will conserve judicial resources and is more efficient for Class Members, particularly those who lack the resources to bring their claims individually. See Reyes v. Altamarea Grp., LLC, No. 10

Civ. 6451, 2011 WL 4599822, at *3 (S.D.N.Y. Aug. 16, 2011). Plaintiffs and Class Members have limited financial resources with which to prosecute individual actions. Concentrating the litigation in this Court is desirable because the allegedly wrongful conduct occurred within its jurisdiction. Employing the class device here will not only achieve economies of scale for Class Members, but will also conserve judicial resources and preserve public confidence in the integrity of the system by avoiding the waste and delay repetitive proceedings and preventing inconsistent adjudications. See Hanlon v. Chrysler Corp., 150 F.3d 1011, 1023 (9th Cir. 1998) (class action superior when individual claims would burden judiciary, be inefficient for plaintiffs, and yield inconsistent results); see also Morris, 859 F. Supp. 2d at 617; Damassia v. Duane Reade, Inc., 250 F.R.D. 152, 161, 164 (S.D.N.Y. 2008).

APPROVAL OF THE SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

10. The Court hereby grants the Motion for Final Approval and finally approves the settlement as set forth in the Settlement Agreement.

11. Rule 23(e) requires court approval for a class action settlement to ensure that it is procedurally and substantively fair, reasonable, and adequate. Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e). To determine procedural fairness, courts examine the negotiating process leading to the settlement. Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. v. Visa U.S.A. Inc., 396 F.3d 96, 116 (2d Cir. 2005); D'Amato v. Deutsche Bank, 236 F.3d 78, 85 (2d Cir. 2001). To determine substantive fairness, courts determine whether the settlement's terms are fair, adequate, and reasonable according to the factors set forth in City of Detroit v. Grinnell Corp., 495 F.2d 448 (2d Cir. 1974).

12. Courts examine procedural and substantive fairness in light of the "strong judicial policy favoring settlements" of class action suits. Wal-Mart Stores, 396 F.3d at 116; see also In re EVCI Career Colls. Holding Corp. Sec. Litig., No. 05 Civ. 10240, 2007 WL 2230177, at *4

(S.D.N.Y. July 27, 2007); Spann v. AOL Time Warner, Inc., No. 02 Civ. 8238, 2005 WL 1330937, at *6 (S.D.N.Y. June 7, 2005).

13. A “presumption of fairness, adequacy, and reasonableness may attach to a class settlement reached in arm’s-length negotiations between experienced, capable counsel after meaningful discovery.” Wal-Mart Stores, 396 F.3d at 116 (quoting Manual for Complex Litigation, Third, § 30.42 (1995)) (internal quotation marks and citation omitted). “Absent fraud or collusion, [courts] should be hesitant to substitute [their] judgment for that of the parties who negotiated the settlement.” In re EVCI Career Colls. Holding Corp. Sec. Litig., 2007 WL 2230177, at *4; see also In re Top Tankers, Inc. Sec. Litig., No. 06 Civ. 13761, 2008 WL 2944620, at *3 (S.D.N.Y. July 31, 2008).

Procedural Fairness

14. The settlement is procedurally fair, reasonable, adequate, and not a product of collusion. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e); Reyes, 2011 WL 4599822, at *4. The settlement was reached after the parties had conducted a thorough investigation and evaluated the claims and defenses, and after arm’s-length negotiations between the parties. Swartz Decl. ¶¶ 4-12.

15. Class Counsel examined Defendants’ data showing the number of Class Members in relevant job titles, salaries, incentive pay, weeks worked, location of employment, and branch hours information. Id. ¶ 14.

16. On January 21, 2014, the parties attended an all-day mediation in San Francisco with an experienced employment law mediator. Id. ¶ 15. After a full day of mediation, Mr. Rotman made a mediator’s proposal to resolve the matter. Id. ¶ 16. While the parties considered the mediator’s proposal, they continued to coordinate expedited discovery. Id. ¶ 17. On January 30, 2014, Plaintiffs filed a Motion for Conditional Certification and Court-Authorized Notice

Pursuant to Section 216(b) of the FLSA. Id. ¶ 18. On February 19, 2014, Mr. Rotman informed the parties that both sides had accepted the terms of the mediator's proposal. Id. ¶ 19. During the next several weeks, the parties negotiated the remaining terms of the settlement, which were memorialized in a formal Joint Stipulation of Settlement and Release ("Settlement Agreement"). Id. ¶ 20.

17. These arm's-length negotiations involved counsel and a mediator well-versed in wage and hour law, raising a presumption that the settlement achieved meets the requirements of due process. See Wal-Mart Stores, 396 F.3d at 116; Reyes, 2011 WL 4599822, at *4.

18. In addition, courts encourage early settlement of class actions, when warranted, because early settlement allows Class Members to recover without unnecessary delay and allows the judicial system to focus resources elsewhere. See Hernandez v. Merrill Lynch & Co., Inc., No. 11 Civ. 8472, 2012 WL 5862749, at *2 (S.D.N.Y. Nov. 15, 2012) (endorsing early settlement of wage and hour class action); Castagna v. Madison Square Garden, L.P., No. 09 Civ. 10211, 2011 WL 2208614, at *6 (S.D.N.Y. Jun. 7, 2011) (commending Plaintiffs' attorneys for negotiating early settlement); Diaz v. E. Locating Serv. Inc., No. 10 Civ. 4082, 2010 WL 5507912, at *3 (S.D.N.Y. Nov. 29, 2010) (granting final approval of pre-suit class settlement in wage and hour case); In re Interpublic Sec. Litig., No. 02 Civ. 6527, 2004 WL 2397190, at *12 (S.D.N.Y. Oct. 26, 2004) (early settlements should be encouraged when warranted by the circumstances of the case). The parties here acted responsibly in reaching an early pre-suit settlement. See Hernandez, 2012 WL 5862749, at *2; In re Interpublic Sec. Litig., 2004 WL 2397190, at *12.

Substantive Fairness

19. The settlement is substantively fair. All of the factors set forth in Grinnell, which provides the analytical framework for evaluating the substantive fairness of a class action settlement, weigh in favor of final approval.

20. The Grinnell factors are: (1) the complexity, expense and likely duration of the litigation; (2) the reaction of the class; (3) the stage of the proceedings and the amount of discovery completed; (4) the risks of establishing liability; (5) the risks of establishing damages; (6) the risks of maintaining the class action through the trial; (7) the ability of the defendants to withstand a greater judgment; (8) the range of reasonableness of the settlement fund in light of the best possible recovery; and (9) the range of reasonableness of the settlement fund to a possible recovery in light of all the attendant risks of litigation. 495 F.2d at 463.

21. Litigation through trial would be complex, expensive and long. Therefore, the first Grinnell factor weighs in favor of final approval.

22. The class's reaction to the settlement was positive. The Notices included an explanation of the allocation formula and an estimate of each Class Member's award. The Rule 23 Notice also informed Rule 23 Class Members of their right to object to or exclude themselves from the Settlement and explained how to do so. No Class Member objected to the settlement, and only one of the 599 Rule 23 Class Members opted out. This favorable response demonstrates that the class approves of the settlement and supports final approval. "The fact that the vast majority of class members neither objected nor opted out is a strong indication" of fairness. See Willix v. Healthfirst, Inc., No. 07 Civ. 1143, 2011 WL 754862, at *4 (E.D.N.Y. Feb. 18, 2011) (approving settlement where seven of 2,025 class member submitted timely objections and two requested exclusion) (internal quotation marks and citation omitted); Khait v. Whirlpool Corp., No. 06 Civ. 6381, 2010 WL 2025106, at *5 (E.D.N.Y. Jan. 20, 2010) (the fact that no class members objected and two opted out demonstrated favorable response weighing in favor of final approval); Wright v. Stern, 553 F. Supp. 2d 337, 344-45 (S.D.N.Y. 2008) (“[t]he fact that the vast majority of class members neither objected nor opted out is a strong indication” of fairness).

23. The parties have completed enough discovery to recommend settlement. The pertinent question is “whether counsel had an adequate appreciation of the merits of the case before negotiating.” In re Warfarin Sodium Antitrust Litig., 391 F.3d 516, 537 (3d Cir. 2004) (internal quotation marks omitted). Here, through both formal discovery and an informal exchange of information prior to mediation, Plaintiffs obtained sufficient discovery to weigh the strengths and weaknesses of their claims and to accurately estimate the damages at issue. The parties’ participation in a day-long mediation allowed them to further explore the claims and defenses. The third Grinnell factor weighs in favor of final approval.

24. The risk of establishing liability and damages further weighs in favor of final approval. “Litigation inherently involves risks.” In re PaineWebber Ltd. P’ships Litig., 171 F.R.D. 104, 126 (S.D.N.Y. 1997). Indeed, the primary purpose of settlement is to avoid the uncertainty of a trial on the merits. In re Ira Haupt & Co., 304 F. Supp. 917, 934 (S.D.N.Y. 1969); see also Velez v. Majik Cleaning Serv., Inc., No. 03 Civ. 8698, 2007 WL 7232783, at *6 (S.D.N.Y. June 25, 2007). Here, Plaintiffs faced numerous risks as to both liability and damages, including overcoming Defendants’ defense that Plaintiffs and Class Members were exempt from federal and state overtime requirements, proving willfulness in order to obtain a third year of liability and damages, and overcoming Defendants’ likely fluctuating workweek argument. The proposed settlement eliminates this uncertainty. This factor therefore weighs in favor of final approval.

25. The risk of obtaining collective and class certification and maintaining both through trial is also present. Contested collective and class certification motion would likely require extensive discovery and briefing. If the Court did authorize notice to the FLSA collective, Defendants would likely challenge that determination by seeking decertification at a later date, after the close of discovery. If the Court were to grant class certification, Defendants might seek to file an appeal under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(f), the resolution of which would require an additional round of briefing. Settlement eliminates the risk, expense, and delay inherent in the litigation process. The fifth Grinnell factor weighs in favor of final approval.

26. Even if Defendants could have withstood a greater judgment, a “defendant’s ability to withstand a greater judgment, standing alone, does not suggest that the settlement is unfair.” Frank v. Eastman Kodak Co., 228 F.R.D. 174, 186 (W.D.N.Y. 2005) (quoting In re Austrian & German Bank Holocaust Litig., 80 F. Supp. 2d 164, 178 n.9 (S.D.N.Y. 2000) (alterations and citation omitted)). Accordingly, this factor is neutral and does not preclude the Court from approving the settlement.

27. The substantial amount of the settlement weighs in favor of final approval. The determination of whether a settlement amount is reasonable “does not involve the use of a ‘mathematical equation yielding a particularized sum.’” Frank, 228 F.R.D. at 186 (quoting In re Austrian & German Bank Holocaust Litig., 80 F. Supp. 2d at 178) (internal quotation marks omitted. “Instead, ‘there is a range of reasonableness with respect to a settlement – a range which recognizes the uncertainties of law and fact in any particular case and the concomitant risks and costs necessarily inherent in taking any litigation to completion.’” Id. (quoting Newman v. Stein, 464 F.2d 689, 693 (2d Cir. 1972))). The seventh Grinnell factor weighs in favor of final approval.

APPROVAL OF THE FLSA SETTLEMENT

28. The Court hereby approves the FLSA settlement.

29. Because, under the FLSA, “parties may elect to opt in but a failure to do so does not prevent them from bringing their own suits at a later date,” FLSA collective actions do not implicate the same due process concerns as Rule 23 actions. McKenna v. Champion Intern. Corp., 747 F.2d 1211, 1213 (8th Cir. 1984); see Reyes, 2011 WL 4599822, at *6. Accordingly, the standard for approval of an FLSA settlement is lower than for a class action under Rule 23.

30. Courts approve FLSA settlements when they are reached as a result of contested litigation to resolve bona fide disputes. See Lynn’s Food Stores, Inc. v. United States, 679 F.2d 1350, 1353 n.8 (11th Cir. 1982); Reyes, 2011 WL 4599822, at *6. Typically, courts regard the adversarial nature of a litigated FLSA case to be an adequate indicator of the fairness of the settlement. Lynn’s Food Stores, 679 F.2d at 1353-54. If the proposed FLSA settlement reflects a reasonable compromise over contested issues, it should be approved. Id. at 1354; Reyes, 2011 WL 4599822, at *6.

31. In this case, the settlement was the result of arm’s-length negotiation involving vigorous back and forth. Swartz Decl. ¶¶ 13-19. During the entire process, Plaintiffs and Defendants were represented by counsel experienced in wage and hour law. Accordingly, the Settlement Agreement resolves a clear and actual dispute under circumstances supporting a finding that it is fair and reasonable.

DISSEMINATION OF NOTICE

32. Pursuant to the Preliminary Approval Order, the Rule 23 and FLSA Notices were sent by first-class mail to each respective Class Member at his or her last known address (with re-mailing of returned Notices for which new addresses could be located). The Court finds that the Rule 23 and FLSA Notices fairly and adequately advised Class Members of the terms of the settlement, as well as the right of Rule 23 Class Members to opt out of or to object to the settlement, and to appear at the fairness hearing conducted on September 23, 2014. Class Members were provided with the best notice practicable under the circumstances.

33. The Court further finds that the Notices and their distribution comported with all constitutional requirements, including those of due process.

34. The Court confirms Settlement Services, Inc. as the claims administrator.

AWARD OF FEES AND COSTS TO CLASS COUNSEL AND AWARD OF SERVICE AWARDS TO PLAINTIFFS

35. On May 12, 2014, the Court appointed Outten & Golden LLP, Shavitz Law Group, P.A., and The Young Law Firm, P.C. as Class Counsel because they met all of the requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(g). See Damassia, 250 F.R.D. at 165 (Rule 23(g) requires the court to consider “the work counsel has done in identifying or investigating potential claims in the action, . . . counsel’s experience in handling class actions, other complex litigation, and claims of the type asserted in the action, . . . counsel’s knowledge of the applicable law, and . . . the resources counsel will commit to representing the class”) (internal quotation marks omitted).

36. Class Counsel are experienced employment lawyers with good reputations among the employment law bar. See Sewell v. Bovis Lend Lease, Inc., No. 09 Civ. 6548, 2012 WL 1320124, at *12 (S.D.N.Y. Apr. 16, 2012) (noting O&G’s reputation as a “respected labor and employment firm” and that O&G attorneys had “prosecuted and favorably settled many employment law class actions, including wage and hour class actions”); Palacio, 2012 WL 1058409, at *2 (appointing O&G and the Shavitz Law Group as Class Counsel based on their experience in “numerous wage and hour class and collective actions”); Robles v. Brake Masters

Sys., Inc., No. 10 Civ. 1135, 2011 WL 9717448, at *1 (D.N.M. Jan. 31, 2011) (approving settlement of FLSA collective action negotiated by The Young Law Firm).

37. The work that Class Counsel has performed in litigating and settling this case demonstrates their commitment to the Class and to representing the Class's interests. Class Counsel have committed substantial resources to prosecuting this case.

38. The Court hereby grants Plaintiffs' Motion for Attorneys' Fees and awards Class Counsel $2,300,000, which is one-third of the settlement fund.

39. The trend in this Circuit is to use the percentage of the fund method to compensate attorneys in common fund cases like this one. McDaniel v. County of Schenectady, 595 F.3d 411, 417 (2d Cir. 2010); Wal-Mart Stores, 396 F.3d at 121; Reyes, 2011 WL 4599822, at *7.

40. Although the Court has discretion to award attorneys' fees based on the lodestar method or the percentage-of-recovery method, McDaniel, 595 F.3d at 417, in wage and hour class action lawsuits, public policy favors a common fund attorneys' fee award, Sewell, 2012 WL 1320124, at *13; Reyes, 2011 WL 4599822, at *7. Fee awards in wage and hour cases are meant to "encourage members of the bar to provide legal services to those whose wage claims might otherwise be too small to justify the retention of able, legal counsel." Sand v. Greenberg, No. 08 Civ. 7840, 2010 WL 69359, at *3 (S.D.N.Y. Jan. 7, 2010). The FLSA and state wage and hour statutes are remedial statutes, the purposes of which are served by adequately compensating attorneys who protect wage and hour rights. Reyes, 2011 WL 4599822, at *7; Sand, 2010 WL 69359, at *3.

41. Where relatively small claims can only be prosecuted through aggregate litigation, and the law relies on prosecution by "private attorneys general," attorneys who fill the private attorney general role must be adequately compensated for their efforts. Reyes, 2011 WL 4599822, at *7; Sand, 2010 WL 69359, at *3. If not, wage and hour abuses would go without remedy because attorneys would be unwilling to take on the risk. Reyes, 2011 WL 4599822, at *7; Sand, 2010 WL 69359, at *3 (“But for the separate provision of legal fees, many violations of the Fair Labor Standards Act would continue unabated and uncorrected.”).

41. Class Counsel’s request for one-third of the Fund is reasonable and “consistent with the norms of class litigation in this circuit.” Gilliam v. Addicts Rehab. Ctr. Fund, No. 05 Civ. 3452, 2008 WL 782596, at *5 (S.D.N.Y. Mar. 24, 2008).

42. Although Arbor Hill Concerned Citizens Neighborhood Association v. County of Albany does not address a common fund fee petition, it supports class counsel’s request for one-third of the fund because “‘reasonable, paying client[s]’ . . . typically pay one-third of their recoveries under private retainer agreements.” Reyes, 2011 WL 4599822, at *8 (quoting Arbor Hill, 522 F.3d 182, 191 (2d Cir. 2008)) (internal citation omitted). While Arbor Hill is not controlling because it does not address a common fund fee petition, it supports an award of one-third of the fund. Reyes, 2011 WL 4599822, at *8; deMunecas v. Bold Food, LLC, No. 09 Civ. 440, 2010 WL 3322580, at *9 (S.D.N.Y. Aug. 23, 2010).

43. In addition, in Plaintiffs’ retainer agreements with Class Counsel, Plaintiffs agreed that Class Counsel could apply to the Court for one-third of a class-wide recovery and that they would pay Class Counsel one-third of any individual recovery. Swartz Decl. ¶ 28. This also provides support for Class Counsel’s request for one-third of the fund.

44. No Class Member objected to Class Counsel’s request for one-third of the fund, which also provides support for Class Counsel’s fee request.

45. All of the factors in Goldberger v. Integrated Resources, Inc., 209 F.3d 43, 48-49

(2d Cir. 2000) weigh in favor of the requested fee award.

46. Applying the lodestar method as a “cross check,” see id. at 50, the Court finds that the fee that Class Counsel seeks is reasonable. Courts regularly award lodestar multipliers of up to eight times lodestar, and in some cases, even higher multipliers. See Vizcaino v. Microsoft Corp., 290 F.3d 1043, 1052-54 (9th Cir. 2002) (listing nationwide class action settlements where multiplier ranged up to 19.6); Sewell, 2012 WL 1320124, at *13 (“Courts commonly award lodestar multipliers between two to six.”); In re Lloyd’s Am. Trust Fund Litig., No. 96 Civ. 1262, 2002 WL 31663577, at *27 (S.D.N.Y. Nov. 26, 2002) (a “multiplier of 2.09 is at the lower end of the range of multipliers awarded by courts within the Second Circuit”); see, e.g., Steiner v. Am. Broad. Co., 248 F. App’x. 780, 783 (9th Cir. 2007) (multiplier of 6.85 “falls well within the range of multipliers that courts have allowed”); Ramirez v. Lovin’ Oven Catering Suffolk, Inc., No. 11 Civ. 520, 2012 WL 651640, at *4 (S.D.N.Y. Feb. 24, 2012) (granting attorneys’ fees equal to 6.8 times lodestar); Davis, 827 F. Supp. 2d at 184-86 (awarding multiplier of 5.3 in wage and hour class action); Buccellato v. AT&T Operations, Inc., No. 10 Civ. 463, 2011 WL 3348055, at *2 (N.D. Cal. Jun. 30, 2011) (awarding multiplier of 4.3 in wage and hour class action); New England Carpenters Health Benefits Fund v. First Databank, Inc., No. 05 Civ. 11148, 2009 WL 2408560, at *2 (D. Mass. Aug. 3, 2009) (awarding multiplier of 8.3); In re Enron Corp. Sec., Derivative & ERISA Litig., 586 F. Supp. 2d 732, 803 (S.D. Tex. 2008) (awarding multiplier of 5.2); In re Cardinal Health Inc. Sec. Litig., 528 F. Supp. 2d 752, 768 (S.D. Ohio 2007) (awarding multiplier of six times); In re Rite Aid Sec. Litig., 362 F. Supp. 2d 587, 589-90 (E.D. Pa. 2005) (awarding multiplier of six); Maley v. Del Global Techs. Corp., 186 F. Supp. 2d 358, 371 (S.D.N.Y. Jan. 29, 2002) (“modest multiplier” of 4.65 in wage and hour class action was “fair and reasonable”); In re RJR Nabisco, Inc. Sec. Litig., No. 88 Civ. 7905, 1992 WL 210138, at *5 (S.D.N.Y. Aug. 24, 1992) (awarding multiplier of six); Cosgrove v. Sullivan, 759 F. Supp. 166, 167 n. 1 (S.D.N.Y.1991) (awarding multiplier of 8.74).

47. Here, the lodestar sought by Class Counsel, approximately 5.1 times the fees sought, falls within the range granted by courts. While this multiplier is near the higher end of the range of multipliers that courts have allowed, this should not result in penalizing Plaintiffs' counsel for achieving an early settlement, particular where, as here, the settlement amount is substantial. See Wal-Mart Stores, 396 F.3d at 121 (“[T]he lodestar create[s] an unanticipated disincentive to early settlements, tempt[s] lawyers to run up their hours, and compel[s] district courts to engage in a gimlet-eyed review of line-item fee audits.”); Vizcaino, 290 F.3d at 1050 n. 5 (noting that “the lodestar method does not reward early settlement” and that “class counsel should [not] necessarily receive a lesser fee for settling a case quickly”); Savoie v. Merchants Bank, 166 F.3d 456, 461 (2d Cir. 1999) (“[T]he percentage-of-the-fund method also removes disincentives to prompt settlement, because plaintiffs’ counsel, whose fee does not increase with delay, have no reason to drag their feet.”).

48. The lodestar multiplier Class Counsel seeks is also reasonable because it will diminish over time. Parker v. Jekyll & Hyde Entm’t Holdings, LLC, No. 08 Civ. 7670, 2010 WL 532960, at *2 (S.D.N.Y. Feb. 9, 2010) (“[A]s class counsel is likely to expend significant effort in the future implementing the complex procedure agreed upon for collecting and distributing the settlement funds, the multiplier will diminish over time”). “[W]here ‘class counsel will be required to spend significant additional time on this litigation in connection with implementing and monitoring the settlement, the multiplier will actually be significantly lower’ because the award includes not only time spent prior to the award, but after in enforcing the settlement.” Sewell, 2012 WL 1320124, at *13 (quoting Bellifemine v. Sanofi-Aventis U.S. LLC, No. 07 Civ.

2207, 2010 WL 3119374, at *6 (S.D.N.Y. Aug. 6, 2010)) (internal quotation marks omitted). In wage and hour cases, Class Counsel is often called upon to perform work after the final approval hearing, including answering Class Member questions, answering questions from the claims administrator, and negotiating and sometimes litigating disagreements with defendants about administering the settlement and distributing the fund. See Swartz Decl. ¶ 29. The fact that Class Counsel's fee award will not only compensate them for time and effort already expended, but for time that they will be required to spend administering the settlement going forward, also supports their fee request. See Reyes, 2011 WL 4599822, at *8.

49. The Court also awards Class Counsel reimbursement of their litigation expenses in the amount of $29,149.19. Courts typically allow counsel to recover their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses. See In re Indep. Energy Holdings PLC Sec. Litig., 302 F. Supp. 2d 180, 183 n.3 (S.D.N.Y. 2003). Here, Class Counsel's unreimbursed expenses, including court and process server fees, postage and courier fees, transportation, working meals, photocopies, electronic research, and Plaintiffs' share of the mediator's fees, are reasonable and were incidental and necessary to the representation of the class.

50. The attorneys' fees and the amount in reimbursement of litigation costs and expenses shall be paid from the settlement fund.

51. The Court finds reasonable service awards of $12,500 each to named Plaintiffs Roman Zeltser, Anna Tyutyunnik, and Jared Brock, and $4,000 each for Litigation Opt-In Plaintiffs Marc Steinberg, Teesta Kaur, Peter Cole, William Wesley, and John Jacobson. These amounts shall be paid from the settlement fund.

52. Service awards are common in class action cases and serve to compensate plaintiffs for the time and effort expended in assisting the prosecution of the litigation, the risks incurred by becoming and continuing as a litigant, and any other burdens sustained by the plaintiffs. Reyes, 2011 4599822, at *9. It is important to compensate plaintiffs for the time they spend and the risks they take. Massiah v. MetroPlus Health Plan, Inc., No. 11 Civ. 5669, 2012 WL 5874655, at *8 (E.D.N.Y. Nov. 20, 2012).

53. The “Effective Date” of the settlement shall be 35 days after the date of this Order if no party appeals this Order. If a party appeals this Order, the “Effective Date” of the settlement shall be five days after all appeals are finally resolved. This Order shall constitute a judgment for purposes of Rule 58 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

54. By no later than seven days after the date of the Effective Date, Defendants shall deposit the remainder of the Gross Settlement Amount into the Qualified Settlement Fund.

55. No later than seven days after Defendants have deposited the remainder of the Gross Settlement Amount into the Qualified Settlement Fund, the claims administrator shall distribute the funds by making the following payments:

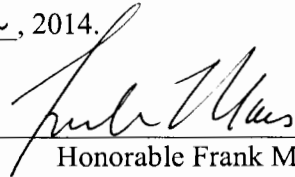

- a. Pay Class Counsel one-third of the fund ($2,300,000);
- b. Reimburse Class Counsel for $29,149.19 in litigation costs and expenses;
- c. Pay service awards of $12,500 each to Plaintiffs Roman Zeltser, Anna Tyutyunnik, and Jared Brock, and $4,000 each for Opt-In Plaintiffs Marc Steinberg, Teesta Kaur, Peter Cole, William Wesley, and John Jacobson; and
- d. Pay the remainder of the fund to Class Members in accordance with the allocation plan described in the Settlement Agreement.

56. The Court retains jurisdiction over this action for the purpose of enforcing the Settlement Agreement and overseeing the distribution of settlement funds. The parties shall abide by all terms of the Settlement Agreement, which are incorporated herein, and this Order.

57. Upon the Effective Date, this litigation shall be dismissed with prejudice, and all

Rule 23 Class Members who have not excluded themselves from the settlement and all FLSA Class Members who have opted in to the lawsuit shall be permanently enjoined from pursuing and/or seeking to reopen claims that have been released pursuant to the settlement.

It is so ORDERED this 23rd day of September, 2014.
